

Anatomy and Physiology 30S - Final Project Rubric

Group Members:
Essential Understanding	Expectations Need to Develop	Approaching Expectations	Fully Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations	Total
Professional Skills	Upon entering the room... 1. Presenters are not dressed in a professional manner. 2. Presenters do not greet you and do not introduce each other. 3. Presenters do not make you feel welcome in the room. 0.....15.....34	Upon entering the room... 1. Presenters are dressed in a professional manner. 2. Presenters greet you and introduce each other. 3. Presenters make you feel welcome in the room. 35.....41.....45	In addition to minimum criteria... 1. Presenters are smiling and appear in an upbeat mood when entering the room. 2. Presenters describe the project, what they are doing and what you are here for. 46.....48.....50	In addition to fully meeting expectations... 1. Presenters conduct themselves in an exceptional manner of professionalism. 2. Presenters refer to additional presentation material (ie. website, blog, etc.) that has been created. Additional marks added: _____	/50
Oral Presentation Skills	During the course of the presentation... 1. Presenters do not speak clearly and in an audible level. 2. Presenters do not maintain eye contact. 3. Presenters do not use appropriate hand gestures and body language. 0.....15.....34	During the course of the presentation... 1. Presenters speak clearly and in an audible level. 2. Presenters maintain eye contact. 3. Presenters use appropriate hand gestures and body language. 35.....41.....45	In addition to minimum criteria... 1. Presenters are able to keep your attention while they were explaining their presentation. 2. Presenters speak in an exciting and enthusiastic manner. 46.....48.....50	In addition to fully meeting expectations... 1. Presenters present their material in unique and/or memorable way. 2. Presenters elicit an emotional response. Additional marks added: _____	/50
Biology Content	During the course of the presentation... 1. Presenters do not make reference to the homeostatic challenges. 2. Presenters do not integrate at least two body systems. 3. Presenters do not discuss causes and symptoms. 4. Presenters do not provide a set of Citations. 0.....15.....34	Presenters are able to supply the following information... 1. Make reference to the homeostatic challenges. 2. Integrate at least two body systems. 3. Discuss causes and symptoms. 4. Refer to a set of Citations. 35.....41.....45	In addition to minimum criteria, the presenters... 1. Integrate at least three body systems into their presentation. 2. Discuss the homeostatic mechanism(s) affected. 3. Include at least two known causes and symptoms. 4. Make reference to at least three interventions. 5. Refer to (and provide) a full set of Citations. 46.....48.....50	In addition to fully meeting expectations... 1. Presenters add significant biological content to their presentation. 2. Presenters provide most current (with Citations) research findings. Additional marks added: _____	/50
Group Presentation Components	During the course of the presentation... 1. Presenters have limited their presentation to using only one method. 2. It is clear that the group has not divided up their work evenly among themselves. 0.....15.....34	Presenters are able to include the following in their presentation... 1. Good organization and sequence of the material being presented. 2. Division of labour between all group members is evident. 3. A variety of presentation components is used (not only PowerPoint!) 35.....41.....45	In addition to minimum criteria, the presenters... 1. Use an appropriate method of presenting their topic. 2. Ensure all members of the group have a role to play in the presentation. 3. Leave the audience with something (handout, pamphlet) as a summary of their presentation. 46.....48.....50	In addition to fully meeting expectations... 1. Presenters add significant and memorable components to their presentation. 2. Presenters demonstrate a connection to the community of professionals involved. Additional marks added: _____	/50
Additional Comments				FINAL SCORE: _____	/200